Generation No. 1

1. THOMAS¹ CURTIS (Source: Dick Wells (wells@amug.org) --The history of Ancient Wethersfield, Vol II by Henry R. Stiles.) was born 1598 (Source: Dick Wells (wells@amug.org) --The history of Ancient Wethersfield, Vol II by Henry R. Stiles.), and died 1681 (Source: Dick Wells (wells@amug.org) --The history of Ancient Wethersfield, Vol II by Henry R. Stiles.). He married ELIZABETH (Source: Dick Wells (wells@amug.org) --The history of Ancient Wethersfield, Vol II by Henry R. Stiles.).

Child of THOMAS CURTIS and ELIZABETH is:

2. i. JOSEPH² CURTIS, b. 1644; d. 1683.

Generation No. 2

2. JOSEPH² CURTIS (*THOMAS*¹) (Source: Dick Wells (wells@amug.org) --The history of Ancient Wethersfield, Vol II by Henry R. Stiles.) was born 1644 (Source: Dick Wells (wells@amug.org) --The history of Ancient Wethersfield, Vol II by Henry R. Stiles.), and died 1683 (Source: Dick Wells (wells@amug.org) --The history of Ancient Wethersfield, Vol II by Henry R. Stiles.). He married MERCY (Source: Dick Wells (wells@amug.org) --The history of Ancient Wethersfield, Vol II by Henry R. Stiles.).

Notes for JOSEPH CURTIS:

The "Roisterers" of old Wethersfield
by Thomas Curtis

Donald Lines Jacobus, in Hale, House and Related Families, mentions an amusing incident that took place at the house of Thomas Wickham, in December of 1679. Wickham's house was up at the north end of High Street, next to what is now the Cove:

John Hale (who was m. to Hannah Nott, daughter of old John Nott) was less prominent than his father or brother, and the reason may be found in a certain sophomoric trait in his character indicated in the following records. On 4 Dec 1679 "John Hale being complained of for abusive language & Notorious Ill carriage is by this Court committed to his Father Hale as his keeper till the Court in March next." The matter came up before then, at a special session held 22 Jan 1679/80. "Lnt Tho: Holister John Hale Wm Wickham for their vnseasonable meeting at Tho: Wickhams house Excessive drinking & playing at Cardes ... fined Thirty shillings a peice." It must have been a wild party, even for Puritan Connecticut. At the same court, a fine was assessed against "Lnt: Tho Holister for breach of the peace in smiteing downe John Curtice & Joseph Curtice." Nor did his victims escape, for Joseph Curtice was fined for playing cards and John Curtice for being drunk. "Mr John Hollister for his unseasonable keeping Company where such great disorders were," also sustained a fine, merely for countenancing such behavior by his presence, but his superior social position is conceded by the use of the term "Mr." even in this unsavory connection. He was, of course, brother of the doughty Lieutenant, who felled the two Curtises ... Thomas Wickham was also fined, for permitting his house to be used by the roisterers.

And that is where this matter ends, so far as our Curtises are concerned. As concerns John Hale, however, Jacobus continues:

But even worse was to come. "It being alledged by Thomas Wickham that John Hale upon Fryday last at night spake evill against our Lord the King sd Hale was committed to the Goale there to be kept in durance till Further order." Apparently he was kept in jail only over night, for the next day the Court sat again, to hear the heinous details and to render judgement. "Thomas Wickham personally appeared & produced Jonathan Strickland & Susanna Kircom who informed him that John Hale had sayd God Damne King Charles, The sayd persons being Examined both affirmed they heard him say: God bless King Charles, & in a fitt when he fell off his Chaire & foamed at his mouth & shakt every Joynt of him they thought he sd God damn King Charles but they durst not take oath of it he spake so lowe." This evidence was not strong enough for a conviction of lese majesty, and John Hale was released. If we may interpret the records, we take it that Hale at a drinking party was toasting the King, but fell off his chair and was so enraged that he turned to cursing the King. Those who were present, not wishing to get him into further trouble, developed a convenient uncertainty as to what they had actually heard him say. It may be supposed that he was badly frightened by this experience, and reformed his ways, for his escapades brighten the pages of the musty court records no more after this episode.

We would not want to leave this matter without mentioning that John Hale and Hannah (Nott) Hale were the grandparents of Nathan Hale, the Colonial Patriot (Codman, p. 5; also see Note 1).

There are two other items of record that bear on our Curtises in this context as well. Stiles notes the results of a midnight watermelon raid involving James² and Joseph² Curtis:

James and Joseph Curtis are prob. the parties, who in 16___, were (with Thomas Hurlburt, Jr., and Thomas Wickham) sentenced by the Gen. Ct. to imprisonment during the court's pleasure, for agreeing to rob Richard Smith's watermelon patch, and not only stealing five melons, but afterwards boasting of it. Finally there was the matter of the Dix girl. From the Hartford County Courthouse Records:

5 Sep 1702, Joseph Curtis (son of Joseph Curtis of Wethersfield, dec'd) accused by Margaret Dix of same town of being the father of her child.

Margaret Dix was the daughter of John² Dix; she would have been several years younger than Joseph³ Curtis, who would have been about 25-26 at the time. Joseph Curtis married in 1708 to Dorothy Edwards.

Notes:

For generations every school child in America knew about Nathan Hale, the young school master, who at the time of the Revolution became an ardent Patriot. Sent across the Sound on a mission to gather information about the British on Long Island, he was captured near Huntington, sent to New York, and hanged as a spy. His last words were reported to have been, "I only regret that I have but one life to give for my Country."

Notes for JOSEPH CURTIS:

Richard:

I checked "The History of Ancient Wethersfield, Vol II", by Henry R. Stiles. He shows a Joseph 4 Curtis, born 1713, married 31 Oct 1732 Silence Williams; removed to Goshen, CT about 1740, in 1750 removed to Dutchess Co., NY; children Mary born 22 May 1733 and Honor baptised 5 Oct 1740. Joseph's ancestors were: Thomas 1, 1598-1681 and Elizabeth ___; Joseph 2, 1644-1683, and Mercy ___; Joseph 3, 1675/6-1760 and Dorothy Edwards.

No mention is made of Joseph 4 having a son James; however, that does not prove that he did not have a son James. No other Joseph Curtis' are shown with a son James born in 1746 or any date near that.

Town of Duanesburg

This page contains all the information from the 1790 U. S. Census for this part of Schenectady County. The page numbers are those in the 200-300 range written in the upper right corner of the microfilmed page. Because the Schenectady County Public Library has microfilm for the later Heads of Families at the first census of the United States taken in the year 1790 rather than the original records, pages in that document are also included ("HOF").

Some of the original 1790 Schenectady census records suffered severe damage. (Central Library visitors may access our Ancestry subscription to see images of them.) The parts of the entries which could not be deciphered are marked with an asterisk.

A few corrections have been made for obvious misspellings, but otherwise the heads of families are listed as they were written.

In 1790, most of what eventually became the Town of Niskayuna was still part of what is now the Town of Watervliet in Albany County. Names for this area may be found at the Albany County NYGenWeb site. 1790 Duanesburg NY census shows Joseph and James Curtis:

Mr. ISAAC COE was born in Stratford, Conn., Nov. 22d, 1772, and married POLLY CURTIS, daughter of JOSEPH CURTIS, of Stratford, Conn. She was born March 29th, 1775, and married Sept. 5th, 1796. The fruits of this marriage were eight children, three sons and five daughters -- namely: MARIA, born in Conn., Sept. 15, 1797; ISAAC, born January 31, 1799; HULDAH, born Jan. 30, 1802, and died March 10, 1870. She was the wife of ASA HOLT. ELI, born July 23, 1805, and died June 24, 1829; MARY, born in Madison county, March 13, 1810, and died Jan. 14, 1862; JOHN B., born Jan. 5, 1813; ELIZA, born Dec. 19, 1814; ARIETTA, born Oct. 23, 1818. ISAAC COE was not as highly favored as many others with school privileges, but he was endowed with a quick and active mind, wise in his conclusions and able to give a reason for his views, which caused many to seek his advice and counsel. In early life he applied himself to farming, also engaging in the boot and shoe trade. In 1806 he sought a home in the west. Packing his goods, he, with his family, consisting of wife and four children, moved to what at that time was considered quite a western section, Madison county. He was very active in the building up, and development of the county. He soon gathered around him a large circle of friends holding their good will and respect until his death, which occurred June 23d, 1841. His wife, POLLY COE, died Nov. 27th, 1858. Mr. COE, during the war of 1812, manifested his patriotism by engaging in it, showing himself a faithful soldier. He was a successful business man, leaving at his death a fine property. Three of his daughters occupy the old homestead and retain one hundred and sixty acres of fine farm land.

Children of JOSEPH CURTIS and SILENCE WILLIAMS are:

5. i. JAMES⁵ CURTIS, b. February 10, 1745/46, Goshen, Connecticut; d. February 24, 1818, buried Moore Cemetery McDonough, NY.
- ii. MARY ANN CURTIS (Source: peter curtis website www.isd.net/pcurtis.; vital records Goshen CT), b. May 22, 1733.

Notes for MARY ANN CURTIS:

Joseph Curtis came from Stratford, Conn., and settled on the north line of the town, on lot 4, and died July 15, 1840, aged 66, and Naomi, his wife, Oct. 9, 1846, aged 70. Robert, Samuel and Timothy Curtis came from the same place about the same time. Robert settled on land purchased of Nehemiah Thompson, on lot 17; and Samuel and Timothy, on Stratford street. Samuel died April 28, 1853, aged 85, and Lucinda, his wife, Aug. 30, 1855, aged 81.

Pension File Number: Found under the initial printing of the veterans name on the left hand side of the page. The five digit number represents the file number given to the pension application when it was filed. A prefix was assigned to each number to indicate as follows: S=soldier; W=widow; R=initial rejection. An application by the Veteran Followed by a subsequent application by the widow is also given a W. The R [rejected] does not mean the individual did not serve, but was rejected under the early legislation for lack of minimum service, or too many assets.

DAR Patriot Index: If found on the right hand side of the page under the initial printing of the Veterans name, means that the Veteran can be found in the Patriot Index published by the Daughters of The American Revolution. Its absence means the Veteran was not found therein.

Note: It is requested that any additional information or corrections related to these Chenango County Veterans be reported to The Chenango County Historical Society

Richard Curtis note:

Interesting that the 1800 census does not show James, so in that time frame evidently moved to McDonough NY where he is buried in 1818. The tombstone of James and his wife Jemima in Moore Cemetery shows that Jemima died in 1808 and buried in Moore Cemetery in East McDonough NY. So it seems reasonable to conclude that James migrated to East McDonough near Ludlow's Pond saw mill about 1799. Most of James children are also buried in Moore Cemetery in East McDonough NY. The only James Curtis appearing in web search of ancestry.com 1800 census in NY in 1800 is in Oneida county and Montgomery county. It could be that since per the History Of Chenango and Madison Counties New York book written by James H. Smith and published in 1880 by D. Mason & Co., Syracuse NY, that McDonough was utter wilderness in 1800, the earliest founder of the township of McDonough (Sylvaus Moore came in 1795 and the township created in 1816). It could be that in 1800 the East McDonough area was so remote that James was not found to interview for the 1800 Census. See <http://www.curtisit.com/curtis/> .html for history of McDonough from Mr. James Smiths' book. Note that Seth Curtis, son of James, farm was about 1/2 mile from Ludlow Pond. It may very well be that James and his teenage sons worked at the very first saw mill in the East McDonough area build by Mr. Ludlow in 1798 on creek feeding Ludlow Pond. Also note that per the before referenced book, Mr. Sylvanus Moore who emigrated to McDonough in 1795, married an Elizabeth Curtis, daughter of a Solomon Curtis in 1797. My personal visit to the Moore cemetery reveals that Mr. Sylvanus Moores grave is practically next to that of James Curtis in Moore Cemetery. A History of Schenectady During the Revolution: Chapter XVI

The Mohawk Valley Laid Waste

[This information is taken from pp. 95-100 of A History of Schenectady During the Revolution by Willis T. Hanson, Jr. (1916). presented here since James Curtis likely fought with Col. Dubois in these battles and particularly the one at Ft. Kloch]

The enemy did not wait until spring to again commence their activities. In February, 1780, a small band effected some damage at German Flats, in March a settlement to the north of Palatine sustained a like invasion, and early in April came news of Brant's raid on Harpersfield.

Reports of minor raids, rumors of intended movements by the enemy on a large scale, actual suffering on the part of the settlers for want of provisions, depreciation in Continental currency which had by now become practically worthless, and the difficulties of affording a semblance of protection by reinforcing the meager garrisons already posted, due to the impossibility of obtaining supplies for the militia, the only force available for this service, had by May brought about a most lamentable condition on the frontiers. As a result of this condition the more remote settlements were reported as daily breaking up and Colonel Van Schaick was led to express (1) the fear that unless some speedy and effectual measures were taken to inspire the despondent people with confidence, Schenectady would in all probability soon be the frontier to the westward.

At daybreak on the morning of May 22 the much feared attack of the enemy materialized, Sir John Johnson appearing on the Mohawk River at Tribes Hill with a strong force (2) of Indians and whites. From Tribes Hill the enemy proceeded westward "burning the Houses and Barns of the Inhabitants and putting to Death every Male capable of bearing arms." (3)

"Collo. Fisher (4) is mortally wounded," reported (5) Colonel John Harper from Johnstown on the same day, "and his two (6) Brothers killed, [and] old Mr. Douw Fonda (7) with seven others."

Of the Schenectady militia who had marched under Colonel Wemple "on the first alarm" some were almost immediately obliged to return for want of provisions (8) The remainder, however, hastened towards Johnstown and, joined by troops from Fort Hunter (9) under Colonel Harper (10) and others under Colonel Volkert Vedder, (11) swelling their force to about four hundred and fifty men, determined to engage the enemy should Sir John, who had rendezvoused there, show any disposition to fight. (12)

Sir John, although his force, swelled by the addition of many Tories who had hastened to join him, now outnumbered the American troops about two to one, did not offer an engagement, but almost immediately withdrew and, eluding the troops which Governor Clinton sent to intercept him, made his way safely back to Canada. (13)

The opportunity afforded by the dispirited condition of soldiers and settlers alike had early been seized upon by the British, who with no small success endeavored through their emissaries to stir up mutinies in the ranks of the main army or induce those holding Tory sentiments to take up arms in their behalf.

Many Tories had joined Sir John Johnson during his raid, and from time to time small bands from Albany and Tryon counties left to join the enemy. That a large party so inclined were assembled at Beavertdam was reported (14) to the Schenectady Committee on July 18. Colonel Vrooman (15) at Schoharie was at once apprised (16) of the fact that he might order out a detachment in an endeavor to intercept them, while in Schenectady a party was at once organized (17) for the same purpose. Although the Schenectady detachment after having marched all night arrived at the rendezvous at daybreak, they were successful in securing but three of the band who had secreted themselves in a barn, while the main body, having undoubtedly been alarmed, succeeded in making their escape. (18)

Late in July the enemy under Joseph Brant appeared in force before Fort Schuyler. This movement was probably a feint, for while the troops were hastening to the defense of the post, leaving the lower valley without adequate means of protection, Brant and his followers quietly withdrew and, advancing by way of the Unadilla and Susquehanna Rivers on August 2, fell upon Canajoharie.

The Albany and Schenectady militia, who had turned out with alacrity (19) under orders previously given, had just gone into camp at Caughnawaga (20) opposite Mr. Frey's at about eleven o'clock on the morning of the second, when they were alarmed by the heavy smoke "between John Abeails and Fort Plank about four miles distant." (21)

"Instantly I did order both Regiments to be formed," reported (22) Colonel Wemple in his dispatch to General Ten Broeck, "& proceed against the Enemy, who were at that time in their full Carear and tho our Numbers were not equal, yet I can assure you I should be void of Justice if I omitted mentioning their Prudence and cool behavior without Distinction to all Raneks. An Altho they had been in full march since early in the morning they came up with such Vigor that the Enemy on our approach gave way & tho in sight we had no opportunity to give them Battle they retired in the usual way."

"Such a Scean as we beheld since we left the River," reads another section of the report, "passing dead Bodies of Men & Children most cruelly murdered, is not possible to be described. I cannot ascertain at present the Number of poor Inhabitants killed and missing but believe the Loss considerable as the People were all at work in the Fields... Some Persons pretend to say not less than one hundred dwelling House are burnt."

On August 21 Colonel Goose Van Schaick, writing (23) to General Washington from Albany, confirmed the details of the withdrawal of Brant from Fort Schuyler and of the attack on Canajoharie. "From thence," continued the letter, "they returned towards the susquahanna, & in a few days after made a Descent on Schohary; here they burnt twelve Houses, & have by information taken and killed a larger number of the Inhabitants than at the former place, & it is expected the remainder of Schohary will share the same fate. The Indians are seen daily in small parties, & take prisoners & Scalps, Schenectady is threatened & the Inhabitants are moving their effects to Albany with all dispatch seeing no appearance of support, & numbers going off to the enemy daily."

In England Riverton's Royal Gazette told of the successful progress of the expedition. "The Indians have laid waste the whole country," reads its issue (24) of September 23, "the Tory houses excepted, down to Schenectady, where some rebels are at work throwing up works to oppose the progress of the British troops and our Indian allies. The rebel women and children have retired to Albany."

Notes

To Governor Clinton, May 17, 1780. Public Papers of George Clinton, V, 715. He expressed the same view to General Washington a few days later. Washington Papers, Library of Congress.

Four hundred whites and two hundred Indians.

Public Papers of George Clinton, V, 743.

Frederick Visscher (Fisher), a colonel in the Tryon County Militia. He had removed his family to Schenectady for safety's sake a few days before. Having been brought down by a tomahawk, scalped and left for dead by the raiders he subsequently recovered consciousness and managed to escape from the burning house he had so gallantly helped to defend. With the aid of a negro slave belonging to one of the neighbors Colonel Visscher managed to reach friends, who at once sent him to Schenectady by canoe. Here he received medical attention and subsequently recovered from his wounds.

John and Harman. They with Colonel Visscher were the sole defenders of the family homestead where the attack occurred.

He had removed from Schenectady and settled at Caughnawaga (Fonda) about the year 1751. An account of his murder may be found in Jephtha R. Simms, Frontiersmen of New York, II, 339.

This fort stood a short distance east of the Schoharie Creek near its confluence with the Mohawk River.

Colonel John Harper of the Levies.

His name was spelled both Vedder and Veeder. He was lieutenant-colonel of the 5th Albany County and later of the 3d Tryon County Militia.

Public Papers of George Clinton, V, 743.

He took with him the family silver which had been buried at the time of his departure in 1776.

13. xi. WILLIAM BELL CURTIS, b. 1798, New York; d. 1879, Patch Grove, Grant, Wisconsin.

Generation No. 6

7. SETH⁶ CURTIS (JAMES⁵, JOSEPH⁴, JOSEPH³, JOSEPH², THOMAS¹) (Source: Rachael Curtis(Huntsville, AL) personal geneology file;.) was born May 07, 1792 in Duanesburg, NY (Source: Ms. Anne Townsend: Rev war veterans--Chenango Cty NY Vol 11, c-h by Nelson B. Tiffany.), and died April 18, 1880 in Per search of <http://searches.rootsweb.com/cgi-bin/ifetch2.../curtis+1997> Seth is buried in Union Cemetery McDonough NY (Source: Mrs. Tuttle paper in Norwich NY library, presented to DAR Norwich NY 1941.1892 Edition of Brown Thurston's Thurston Genealogies 1635-1880.). He married ANNA FITTS (Source: Ms. Anne Townsend: Rev war veterans--Chenango Cty NY Vol 11, c-h by Nelson B. Tiffany.), daughter of JOHNATHAN FITTS and JOANNA THURSTON.

Notes for SETH CURTIS:

History of Chenango and Madison Counties, New York

"VILLAGE OF ILION.

There was nothing meriting the name of a village on the site of Ilion until after the completion of the Erie Canal, yet there was a store there as early as 1816, and perhaps earlier, a fact which is attested by shiplasters of Thomas Gillespie & Son of that date. In early years the western part of the present corporation was called "London." After the construction of the canal the locality was known as Morgan's Landing, while on the canal list it was called Steele's Creek."

"The following interesting and comprehensive account of the place was written by William Hibbard "

. Still farther west and near the creek, was the residence of Adam Steele. The school-house was located on the site of Long's barn, near the old feeder, but was afterward moved to about half way between Dennis Dygert's storehouse and the bridge first mentioned. Opposite this bridge, and close to the towpath, was the "Seth Curtis House," occupied by Mr. Lawrence Helmer, which is still standing, and is distinguished as the old brown tenement, third building east of the Agricultural Works; farther to the east was the residence of Esquire Helmer. This property was afterwards bought of Mr. Harter by William Jinks, inventor of the Jinks carbine, who erected a new dwelling in the place of the old one; and later it passed into the hands of Esquire Rasbach, by whose family it is now occupied. Such was Ilion in 1831"

CHURCHES/Guilford NY fomr History of Chenango and Madison county NY. See full text in sources section:

"The Baptist Church of Guilford was organized as the Baptist Church of Fayette, June 3, 1843, as a branch of the church in Oxford, and was composed originally of Russell Dibble, Salina Dibble, Susannah Smith, Susan Merchant, Abigail Laraway, Loritta Cable, Eliza Saunders, Anthony Williams, Polly Williams, John Edson Dibble, Elizabeth Guy and Hammon Guy, who were then residing in Fayette and vicinity and were members of the church in Oxford. Six others had joined during the year four by letter and two by baptism, viz. Alonzo Hendrick, Clarinda Hendrick, Frances H. Morgan, Mary L. Smith, by letter, and Daniel Dibble and Henry Van Cott, by baptism. "

"Rev. E. G. Perry was the first pastor. He closed his labors April 27, 1844. The latter date they resolved to form a Sabbath school, and a Mr. Gorham, from Madison University, was to visit them for that purpose and to preach for a few weeks. "

"June 8, 1844, they resolved to organize as a separate church, and Russell Dibble, John Hull, Jr., Alonzo Hendrick and John M. Wilcox were appointed a committee to draft articles therefor. June 30, 1844, articles reported by the committee were adopted. July 21, 1844, the Church of Oxford was petitioned for permission to withdraw for that purpose. The names affixed to that petition, in addition to those already given, are: Gardner Wade, Harrison H.

Van Cott, George Knapp, Roxana Brant, Elizabeth Hull, Salome Wade, Esther Hendrick and John Hull, Jr. Aug. 27, 1844, the covenant of the Oxford church was adopted, and they were recognized by a council which convened at the house of R. Dibble, and was composed of the following delegates: Elder O. Bennett, Sylvanus Moore, Benjamin Randall, Seth Curtis and William Willcox, from the church in McDonough; Deacon S. Yale, Uriah Yale, Elam Yale and Mark Yale, from the Second Guilford church; David P. Willoughby and Leontes Hendrick, from the church in Coventry; Lyman Root, Samuel Root, John Perry, David Hayes, John Gray and Randall Maine, from the church in Oxford. Randall Maine was chosen Moderator and David Hayes, Clerk of the council. Elder O. Bennett gave the right hand of fellowship. In that year they united with the Chenango association. Sept. 7, 1844, Russell Dibble and John M. Willcox were chosen deacons. "

"MCDONOUGH VILLAGE.

McDonough is situated in the west part of the town on Genegantslet Creek, from which it extends nearly a mile west, and is distant about 9 1/2 miles from Oxford. It contains two churches, (Baptist and Methodist Episcopal,) a district school, one hotel, which was built about 1844, by John F. Hill, has since received several additions, and is now kept by William L. Brown, five stores, two tanneries, two saw-mills, one grist-mill, a woolen-mill, four blacksmith shops, (kept by William R. Runyan, William Arnold, Levi Sanford and Bruce Sanford,) two wagon shops, (kept by Henry M. Lamb and Milton A. Pike,) two cooper shops, (kept by Thomas Dunning and Nathaniel Thornton,) a harness shop kept by Lafayette Bennett, (this business was carried on by William Smith from about 1840 till his death, March 14, 1878. He was succeeded by his son Charles E., who continued it one year. Bennett came in 1878,) and a population of about 300. "

Richard Curtis note: re: proof that Seth Curtis of Chenango County was the Seth Curtis father of John Thurston Curtis: 05/18/02: The original genology research done by Charlie Curtis while living in New York city is on old carbon paper and was handed down to Earl and Mary Wells Curtis and then to Jack V. Curtis my father. Inspecting those pages in Richard Curtis possession shows handwriting notes I recognize as those of Mary Wells Curtis. She had hand written on these carbon papers compiled in November 1966 saying that John T. Curtis was John "Thurston" Curtis and that this was "PaPa Curtis mother and father". Further in handwritten notes on carbon pages she has written beside Seth Curtis and wife Anna Fitts that these were "PaPa C grandparents". On these pages below Seth are listed children James Harvey Curtis, Palmyra Curtis, Sallie Curtis, John T. Curtis, Edmund B. Curtis, Adelaide E. Curtis, Charles Edgar Curtis (starved to death in Salisbury S.C. while a prisoner of war), Lovisa E. Curtis, Lowrane A. Curtis, William Henry Curtis, and Harriet A. Curtis. Further my review of the U.S. census of 1840 shows 4 boys whose ages in these records all match the ages of males catagorized on the 1840 census...the girls ages on our records also match the 1840 census of Seth Curtis of Chenango County NY.

Seth appears to have been a teenager , when his father James, about 57 at the time, moved the family south from Duanesburg, to McDonough NY in about 1800.

Per Tuttle paper in Norwich NY library presented to DAR 1941, Seth lived on the home farm where his children were born and in later years removed to the village of McDonough to the Samuel Smith house north of the Tucker home (gone in 1941). Seth was married to Anna by the Rev. Nathaniel Kellogg of Greene NY (Brisben). Elder Kellogg established the first Baptist Church in Geneganslet Corners NY and Greene NY.

Notes for ANNA FITTS:

Sister to Lovina Fitts Carpenter buried in Moore Cemetery East McDonough NY. Lovina Fitts Carpenter was married to John Carpenter per headstone in Moore Cemetery. Anna Fitts was also sister to Betsey Fitts the wife of Silas Betts buried in Brisben Cemetery. This info per Mrs. Tuttle paper Norwich NY library.

Notes for JOHN THURSTON CURTIS:

According to Glenn Curtis conversation with Richard Curtis in 2001 (brother to Earl Curtis) it was John Thurston Curtis who migrated from New York to Waynesburg Kentucky via railroad. Jack Curtis thought that they had settled at King's mountain that was near the rail station there near Waynesburg Ky.

This is confirmed by the Kentucky Census of 1870 wherein we find a John Curtis in Pulaski County. See Fred P. Curtis where 1900 Census shows him with a business called New York Lumber & Grain.

History of Chenango and Madison Counties, New York

WHITE STORE.

White Store is situated on the Unadilla, in the east part of the town, and is a station on the New Berlin Branch of the Midland Railroad, with a population of sixty-three. It contains a Union Church, built in 1820, by members of the Baptist, Methodist and Universalist denominations, a district school, a grist-mill, two groceries, kept by J. T. Curtis and Caleb Barr, the latter of whom is the postmaster, having been appointed to the office April 19, 1874. Mr. Barr was preceded in the office by William T. Morse, who held it about two years. David Shippey previously held it a great many years. The postoffice at this place was established at an early day.

Richard Curtis note: I find it interesting that John Thurston Curtis, whose father and grandfather spend many years living in Duanesburg NY, when John Thurston gets off train from migration NY to KY, settles at Waynesburg, KY. Names of towns sound very much alike.

Children of JOHN CURTIS and JULIA ACKLEY are:

28. i. JOHN CARPENTER⁸ CURTIS, b. June 04, 1866; d. February 05, 1940.
29. ii. FRED PERCIVAL CURTIS, b. September 13, 1852, New York; d. March 21, 1929.

- v. ARTHUR BYRON CURTIS (Source: Rachael Curtis(Huntsville, AL) personal geneology file;.), b. March 13, 1863; d. November 19, 1934.

Notes for ARTHUR BYRON CURTIS:

According to Glenn Curtis, Art was a railroad conductor and moved, lived in El Paso Texas. He never married. Although according to Glenn, he had a bastard son in Waynesburg Ky. Laughingly, thought why he moved out of state to Texas.

Art Curtis is said to have left his estate largely to a church in Texas, thought to be the Seventh Day Adventist church according to Jack V. Curtis. Further, Jack stated that it was reported that Arthur Curtis after having moved to Texas, bought some land that later oil was discovered on and made Arthur relatively wealthy by family standards.

17. EDMUND BOSTWICK⁷ CURTIS (SETH⁶, JAMES⁵, JOSEPH⁴, JOSEPH³, JOSEPH², THOMAS¹) (Source: Rachael Curtis(Huntsville, AL) personal geneology file;.Also Tuttle paper for middle name.) was born March 09, 1826. He married MARY MOORE (Source: Mrs. Tuttle paper in Norwich NY library, presented to DAR Norwich NY 1941.) October 05, 1851 (Source: Mrs. Tuttle paper in Norwich NY library, presented to DAR Norwich NY 1941.), daughter of SYLVANUS MOORE and POLLY COVIL.

Notes for EDMUND BOSTWICK CURTIS:

Edmund or Edmond was a carpenter by trade and also taught school in McDonough. Later he had a position in the U.S. Treasury Washington D.C. from 1861-1877 as Comptroller Dept. 2 per Mrs. Tuttle DAR paper (Mrs. Tuttle was longtime resident of McDonough.

Notes for MARY MOORE:

Mrs. Tuttle in her work, stated that Mary Moore's father was Andrew Jackson Moore and Mother Lucinda Lawton. Anne Townsend of Anne Townsend [anneto@scccinternet.com] 7/22/03 states that First: Mary was not the daughter of Andrew Jackson Moore as Helen had stated in her book. Andrew Jackson Moore b 1814 would hardly have been old enough to have been the father of Mary b 1825.

Fact: Andrew Jackson Moore was her half brother, his mother was Elizabeth Curtis, Sylvanus Moore's first wife. Further I don't find any immediate relationship between Elizabeth Curtis & James Curtis.

Elizabeth had a brother, James L Curtis, b 1788; died 1810; b Curtis Cemetery, Oxford. His wife was Phebe Purdy b Westchester County, NY; after James died, Phebe married Beriah Curtis; son of Selden Curtis, a brother to Solomon.

These Curtis cousins settled in Moravia, Cayuga County where I live.

Elizabeth's parents were:

Solomon & Sarah Landers Curtis, both born in Litchfield County, CT.

Solomon Curtis parents:

Deodatus & Elizabeth Selden Curtis.

Deodatus b Bristol, Bristol, RI; died in Columbia County, NY

Elizabeth Selden b Hartford County, CT; died in Litchfield County, CT.

Mary Moore's parents:

Sylvanus Moore b 14 May 1771; d 12 Sept 1850

married 19 Dec 1824

2nd wife, Polly Coville b 17 Jan 1790; d 23 Nov 1888.

This was taken from a copy of the journal given to me by my mother. Some of the dates and names are very unclear, so I made comments in parentheses next to that part. This is copyrighted material. I believe this was copied in the early 1900's by my Grandfather's Uncle, Ethelred Curtis, from a journal that was written by and belonging to my Grandfather's Grandfather, James A. Curtis. There is a letter head on all pages. I copied the information from that letter head and included it at the top of this page. If you have any questions about this journal, email me at blgy@lcii.net and I will be happy to answer. Thanks for coming.

The name "Curtis" meaning courteous, civil, gentle was brought to England by the Norman conquest A.D. 1065 (?). It has been a popular name since the 13th century causing more confusion than any other name among historians. Authorities agree that all of the Curtises are related. The family was numerous in England. Stephen Curtis lived at Apledore, Kent County, England. In 1450 the Curtis family in England were great friends of William Shakespeare and that he named one of his characters in his "Taming of the Shrew" for one of them.

"Curtis Coat of Arms"

On May the 9th 1532 Henry VIII, King of England, confirmed the "Curtis Coat of Arms". William Curtis, our great, great, great grandfather, was a brother of John and Thomas Curtis come from Nazing, England in 1632 (unclear) on the ship "Lion" and settled in Boston, Mass. and later at Stratford, Conn. He was preceded by his oldest son, Wm. Curtis in 1631. William was an Ensign in King Philip's War and a Captain in the army at Stratford, Conn. He and his brothers, Isreal and Joshau signed the fundamental agreement for the settlement and the government of Pamperegue Feb. 4th 1672. The great "Curtis" mills at Scituate was founded by these brothers, Wm., Isreal and Joshau.

Our direct ancestors come from the other brother Thomas Curtis. Thomas Curtis, a man of great reputation and owned great estate, was born in 1670 and died in 1741. There were many descendants and they having the adventure spirit settled in parts of the U.S.A. Several went South, but most went West to N.Y., Mich., Wis., Ind., Kansas. Thomas, son of Wm. Curtis, was our great, great grandfather and they settled in New York. There were some 642 of the Curtises who took part in the Revolutionary War. Many of these who bore arms were of high military ranks and later in life were identified with several colleges and educational institutions. The family has always been prominent in the educational, public and professional life of the country. The Hon. Vice President Charles Curtis is a descendant of this family of brothers and makes him a 5th cousin to the present members of this Curtis clan here today.

The name of Somes, Ladd and Clayton are all related to the Curtis families and many of their descendants at one time lived in Grant County. On our great, great grandmother Curtis (Somes), I read in my father's genealogy that he wrote himself and calls attention to this fact, undoubtedly there is royal blood in the veins of the American Curtis tribe. Not having the data of the personal life of A.W.Curtis, I can only call attention to the personal life of James A. Curtis. This is taken in part from his own record written by himself covering the first 25 yrs. of his life up to the time he married Jane H. Howe (mother) at Belvedere, Ill.

This is what he wrote:

I was born on Saturday, January 16, 1830 in a log house in Duanesburg, Schenectady, New York. My parents are descendants of English ancestry. My great, great grandfather was a descendant of English nobility. His parents were very rich. When he was a boy of 12 years, he was down by the wharf playing and was stolen and pressed on board a Man-of-War along with several other boys. After being on board two years, he landed in New York and lived on Long Island and married. His name was Samuel Somes. He was our great, great grandfather. He was a very large man, being 7 ft. tall and well proportioned. Our great, great grandfather Curtis was a small short man. He was also of English descent. He lived to be 92 years old. The Somes also lived to be about a century old. The personal life of James A. Curtis as recorded by himself. When I was in my 6th year, I went to school a little, but I was so bashful that the scholars abused me and my parents took me out of school. I well remember once when I was coming home from school, one of our neighbors said she would give me some honey to take home to my mother in my dinner pail and asked me to wait till she could go down in the cellar and get it. As soon as she was gone, I ran home as fast as I could go. I did not go enough to learn all of my letters. The next summer I did not go any. When I was in my 8th year, I went to school and commenced to read in words of two letters. I learned so fast that in the fall I got Peter Parleys Geography and was so delighted with it that I used to fetch it home and study it. From this period, I formed a great taste for reading and since I have always liked to read.

When I was 10 years old (1840), there was a great impression made upon my mind in regard to politics. In that year, politics ran very high and Wm. H. Harrison was elected President. When I was 12 years old, I had the measles and two of my sisters died. This year (1842), Father having sold his farm, we moved. The winter I was 13, I went to school 2 months. I went through Dabel's Arithmetic twice and I thought that I understood it pretty well and that I need not study arithmetic much more. This year 1843, father bought a farm and it was close to a Baptist church and they had a great revival. I was awakened and prayed more or less all summer in secret. The next winter I got Adams Arithmetic and found that I did not know quite so much about arithmetic as I thought I did. This year (1844) I read the political papers and took an active part in the presidential campaign. In the year 1845, the Manorial or Anti Rent trouble broke out (can't read rest of sentence). The last of Nov. 1845, I commenced going to a select school two mile from home. I will here say I always stayed at home in the summers and went to school in the winters. In 1848, I took part with the Free Soldiers against the extension of Slavery. I was fully aroused to the evils of slavery and I took an active part in the contest. I electioneered and tried to get all I could to vote for Martin Van Buren.

WAS A SCHOOL TEACHER AT THE AGE OF 19 AND RECEIVED $12 PER MONTH

The fall of 1849 I took a school in Florida. My school being small and having only 8 or 10 scholars, I got discouraged and quit after keeping 4 weeks. I, however, hired out and commenced a school in our own town the next week at the same wages($12 per month). When I commenced keeping school, I felt very awkward and very much out of place. Whenever I came into the house, I always had a book or paper in my hands and could take more pleasure in reading than I could in visiting. Frequently, when I had invitations to parties, I would stay home and read rather than go. On November 11, 1850, I started for the State Normal School at Albany, N.Y. I was examined and placed in the Junior class. This was the first time that I went away from home to school. I had never written compositions and you would laugh to see how it got cut up in correcting. But after the first one, I was more careful, I assure you. I boarded myself and for a term of 19 weeks it cost me $28.00. When I left home, I did not think of going more than one term, but I liked the school well and I had formed such a desire for learning more, so the next term I returned. The first term I (unclear here) myself well and was advanced to the Sub Senior Class. In this class I had to study very hard, but I was determined to be advanced and to sustain myself well, and I did do it. I boarded myself and it cost $21.00. I might here remark that the first winter I kept school I saved all my money to school myself. My money being exhausted, I was obliged to go to keeping school again before I could go any more. So I hired out--kept school two weeks and had some difficulty with a boy. His father was a very hasty man who took me up for assault and battery. We had a trial and I had to pay the costs. This I did not like and I quit the school the next week. I hired out again for 4 months. I kept my time out and returned to Albany the 8th of March 1852. I entered the Senior Class, went through the course of study and received my diploma on the (?) of July 1852. After school was out, I decided to see a little more of the world. So the morning of July the 9th, I took passage on board the ill-fated steamer Henry Clay for New York City. Here he describes the many things and places of interest that he found and visited that summer. In the fall, he again engaged a school at Fleming, New York for 5 months. The 14th of March I closed my school and started for home on the 25th. In February of 1853, the Baptists had a great revival and my father and sister were converted to God as I hope and humbly trust. April 24th father and sister were baptized. October the 1st I went to Saratoga, N.Y. and other places in search for a school. While in old Saratoga, I engaged a school at Dean's Corners for 4 months at $21.00 per month and board around (getting an advanced salary this term). About the middle of October, I spoke at a temperance meeting at Burton's Villa, Montgomery Co., N.Y. and the next week in the Baptist Church at Breman's Corners, Schenectady C., N.Y. My remarks seemed to take very well. Nov. 4th I started for my school. On the evening of the 6th, I made some remarks at a temperance meeting held in the school house in the town of Saratoga, N.Y. This winter I enjoyed myself very much and had quite a (unclear) at school with one exception. On January 8th 1854 I delivered a lecture on temperance to a full house. It appeared to take well and I know that many were well pleased. I attended a debating school this winter. I took a very active part and we had some very good debates. The ladies as well as the gentlemen attended. This is as it should be, for every such society needs refinement of the ladies to purify and chasten them.

GOES WEST MAY 8TH 1854 TO VIRGINIA, ILL.

On Monday, May the 8th, I took the Great Western Railroad west thru Canada to Detroit, stopped off at Niagara Falls in route and arrived in Chicago then on to Springfield, Ill. After 4 days of travel, found no (unclear) on a stage for the 32 miles west from Springfield to Virginia, Ill. I expected to take a school here but was disappointed. Another man had taken it before I arrived. So I took a clerk job in a drug store for Dr. Allard. I remained 4 weeks and then took a school. The summer was very warm and dry. When my quarter was out, the directors engaged me for two more quarters. On the 28th of October I went hickory nutting on the Sangmom bottoms. We stayed two days and camped out at night. The past year our country has been agitated with the Slavery question which is constantly presenting itself in new phases and destined never to be at a less interesting and momentous topic than now, till the system comes to a perpetual end. There is -- there can be no security for our nation while nourishing this viper at her bosom. Slavery must be destroyed or it will destroy the people with whom it is a treacherous guest. The summer of 1854 and the winter of 1855 I taught school one mile west of Virginia, Ill. Closing my school March 2nd 1855 I was never so successful before in a school. In the 5 quarters I taught, I had no occasion to punish a scholar. One of the directors told me that he had not heard one word of fault, that all were satisfied. For the above school I received $25.00 per month and board. The next three months I took the school at Virginia, Ill. Having been confirmed for the past 12 months in school work, I concluded that I should work at farming through the summer. I commenced plowing corn on the 5th of June and got $.75 a day. I commenced harvest on the 4th of July at $1.50 per day in grain and $1.25 in hay. The sun burned my hands to blisters but I stood it well and on June 4th I cast my first vote in Illinois. At this election we voted on Prohibition. I used my influence and gave my vote for Prohibition. Goes to the north part of the state and has the chills and fever. Lands a school at Elgin, Ill. at $500.00 per year under the conditions that either party could quit at any time if dissatisfied.

GOES TO SEE HIS SWEETHEART, MISS JANE H. HOWE

Commenced school on September the 11th and the next day went to Morengo, Ill. to see if I could engage Miss Howe for my assistant, but did not succeed. I commenced my school on Sept. 15th with Miss Palmer of New York as assistant.

LOOSES HIS JOB ON ACCOUNT OF A RUSTY COLLAR

On the morning of Oct. the 15th E. Gifford, Superintendent of schools, came to my room before school and told me that he had concluded to change teachers. I demanded his reasons and he said that I had created rather an unfavorable impression when I first came. He said that my collar and clothes were rather dusty. He said that the report was spread around that I did not go dressed as well as ought and it created an impression injurious to the school. But I do not think the above is true cause. His daughter, Ada, a young lady come to school and she wanted to rule and I would not let her. For misconduct I deprived her of recesses and talked with her pretty severely. Her father told me that he took her out of Mr. Alvord's school, for he did not know which would be boss. I think that similar difficulties were the true cause of my dismissal. The third day after my dismissal I engaged a school at Geneva. The school house not being finished I turned in and (unclear) it for them. After this I went into the country and worked at farming for three weeks. My time was to commence on the 19th of Nov. whether the school house was finished or not. It was a week later that school started. I have a school of some 60 scholars and they are quite backward.

GETS MARRIED TO MISS JANE H. HOWE

On the 27th of December 1855 at 11 o'clock A.M. I was married to Miss Jane H. Howe at the house of her brother-in-law, Mr. J. Collins, in Belvedere, Ill. by the Rev. M. Amsden, congregationalist. I was first introduced to Miss Howe at Mr. Griffith's Jan. 2nd 1853. I spent two or three evenings at her house before I left Fleming, N.Y. After I left, we had correspondence until we were married. Another year has rolled around and this finds me a married man. I have entered upon new duties and new relations. The future is fraught with auspicious incidents. We must willing or unwilling enter into its struggles and activities to perform our part in the great drama of life and Heaven grant that we may enact our part nobly and bravely. We should ask ourselves, what is our aim? For what are we created? And what is our ultimate destiny? We should all feel that we are created for something noble, something Godlike, and we should try to fulfill the great ends of life. Thus ends the chapter of his life written up to the time he married our mother. One of the BEST mothers who ever lived.

28. JOHN CARPENTER⁸ CURTIS (JOHN THURSTON⁷, SETH⁶, JAMES⁵, JOSEPH⁴, JOSEPH³, JOSEPH², THOMAS¹) (Source: Rachael Curtis(Huntsville, AL) personal geneology file;.) was born June 04, 1866, and died February 05, 1940. He married SAVANNAH RACHAEL BOTKINS (Source: John (Jack) Vaughan Curtis. Also per Mary Wells Curtis interview 1984 by Richard L. Curtis) November 27, 1889 in Pulaski county, Kentucky (Source: search ancestry.com marriage records pulaski county.), daughter of MARANDA BOTKINS and MARY ATKINS.

Notes for JOHN CARPENTER CURTIS:

Jack Curtis believes that it may have been John Carpenter Curtis and his brothers who migrated to Kentucky from New York. He stated 9/98 that they first settled above Somerset KY in a community on the railroad known as Kings' Mountain, KY.

Per Jack Curtis, writers father, John C. Curtis fell from apple tree as young boy and broke his ankle. They couldn't get it set properly and so it never healed properly, resulting in as a mature man, one leg being shorter than the other by about one inch. He had to wear built up shoes on one foot to compensate for this. Pictures on this site show this.

Jack Curtis also said that John C. Curtis was the main person behind getting into the flour mill business in Somerset KY and was the President of the Flour/mill company. Jack said he thought it was probably because he had put the most money into it. It was John C. Curtis's guaranteeing a nephews bank loan to purchase the first Chevrolet dealership in Somerset that in the depression caused the bank to call guarantee of John C. Curtis and eventually started the downward spiral resulting in the loss of the Mill by foreclosure as well as the family home in Somerset.

Notes for CHARLES E. CURTIS:

Phone interview of Mrs. Robert Curtis of Somerset Kentucky 2/9/03 confirms the names of children children of Charles Curtis. She said that one of the daughters married and became a Mrs. Satterfield.

Gene Curtis said that Charles his grandfather died on the "throne" Said he had a habit of late night bathroom breaks and one night he did not return.....his wife Elizabeth, a nurse came to check on him and discovered he was dead.

Notes for ELIZABETH E. FIELDS:

Known as Lizzie per 1900 Kentucky Census. Also said had one child by 1900 but it was not living. John (Jack) Vaughan Curtis, relates the story that this was his aunt Lizzy. She was a nurse at the hospital in Somerset. He said that the drug store he first got a job at in Somerset was two hospital rooms converted off the old hospital. He said that they could walk to back of drug store and door went out to hall of hospital. He mentioned that occasionally he was called on to help while working in the drug store to help bring in emergency room patients. Jack said that he got to know Aunt Lizzy much better by seeing her at the hospital at back of drug store where he worked.

Yes he is. In fact, I have a diary of Francis Marion's in which he wrote down the members of his family. If you are ever interested in photos, I have some nice ones of several Curtis relatives. My grandfather was always embarrassed because his father, F.M., being a miller, always wore a white suit while the other businessmen wore dark suits. F.M. was a "powerful" man as my G-gather said; he could carry a 100-pound sack of flour on each shoulder.

42. EARL BOTKINS⁹ CURTIS (JOHN CARPENTER⁸, JOHN THURSTON⁷, SETH⁶, JAMES⁵, JOSEPH⁴, JOSEPH³, JOSEPH², THOMAS¹) (Source: Curtis family record, All beginning info on Curtis' came from summary info supplied from John V. Curtis(Jack) he had obtained from his sister Anna Rachael who had gotten from an Uncle who had started while living in NYC.) was born December 24, 1894 in Alabama, and died November 11, 1994 in Louisville, Ky. He married MARY WELLS VAUGHAN November 07, 1917, daughter of OTHA VAUGHAN and LAVONIA BRADSHAW.

Notes for EARL BOTKINS CURTIS:

Per John Vaughan Curtis (Jack) Earl worked in Mill his father owned in Somerset Ky. His father later bought out his brothers , Charlie and Fred, from the mill and owned all of it in the end before loosing it in the depression. Per Jack, prior to the depression, Earl saved up money working in the Mill and bought a Nu Grape bottling company and it did not do well so he sold it and bought a general store that largely sold clothing in Russell Springs Kentucky. In the purchase he bought the inventory including many hat boxes (men in that day all wore hats) that upon later inventory turned out to be empty. Jack said Earl hired his wife's cousin, a school teacher, to run the store while he continued to work at the Mill owned by his father. The Store after suffering the loss of the bad inventory and also then the depression could not survive and it hurt Earl financially by loosing all his savings. After the depression and the family also loosing the Mill, a family from Tennessee named Robinson, bought the mill. After several years, they reopened the Mill and hired Earl to run the mill for them.

Immediatly prior to running the mill, Earl and his new wife Mary Wells located on a small farm on the what was then the south side of Somerset Ky. This was down Montecello Street south of the Mill off Oak Hill Road. They farmed this small bit of land and Earl also owned and operated a small general store nearby. While living at this small Farm, their first child, John (Jack) Vaughan Curtis was born. In speaking with Mr. Jack Curtis Feb. 2004, he recollects living on this farm up until he was about 10-11 years old. He recalls walking to the general store pulling a new wagon he had received to get some items from the store. The store had one gasoline pump from Standard Oil. He recalls going into the store and leaving his wagon behind a gasoline truck that was filling the tank at the store. When he came out, the truck had backed out and run over the wagon destroying it. Jack recalls crying and being quite upset. The truck driver graciously offered and purchased Jack a new wagon. Jack recalls that there later was another store across the street for Earl's store that was run by Mr. Jimmy Hudson. It was at this store that Jack took his the writer (son Richard) back to purchase a used shotgun for hunting in about 1968. When Jack was about 11 years old, he recalls his family selling the farm and moving into the city of Somerset and this is when his father Earl went back to work at the mill. So this must have been about 1929-1930. Recall that Earl's father build the mill in about 1907.

Earl ran the mill until he retired in 1967. After retiring, Earl got into curing country hams, entering many times in the Kentucky state fair contests. He constructed a smoke house in the back of his garage wherein he smoked and cured country hams. He also went to work for Mr. Haney in Somerset who had a country ham business.

Earl was a young hearted man way into his later years. The writer as a boy of about 11 remembers Earl trying out his skate board on a visit when he was about 72 years old. He had a wry sense of humor and enjoyed tricks and would express his enjoyment of same by a small smile. In retirement, he took up wood working, making cutting boards, pencil holders, silverware holding miniture chest of drawers, checkerboards, etc out of walnut and maple and other woods. He did this in his basement woodworking shop. He also put together a grandfather clock which remained operating in his house for about 25 years.

Earl and his wife Mary Wells both taught Sunday school for many many years at the Methodist Church in Somerset on Central Ave. At family gatherings, Earl would say grace before dinner, "Dear heavenly Father, we thank thee for this food, pardon our sins and save us, in Christ's name, amen."

Notes for MARY WELLS VAUGHAN:

Mary Wells Vaughan, lost her mother when she was but about 4 years old. Her mother died of TB in Jamestown Kentucky. Her father remarried and moved to the farm belonging to the widow he married south of Somerset. This provided a homeplace for Mary Wells and her sisters to grow up under the care of her father and step mother.

Mary Wells attended the Methodist Church on Central Avenue in Somerset and taught Sunday School there for about 20-30 years.

Her favorite TV show in later years was the Lawrence Welk Show. She often complained about beer commercials on TV when they appeared. Her favorite saying when expressing surprise or disgust was to say "Oh Lord" , pronounced..."Aaah Law".

Notes for JOHN ARNOLD CURTIS:

According to Jack Curtis 12/9/2000, John Arnold worked at a bank in Stearns Kentucky before the great depression. Had a company house there. Said that he in an unauthorized manner, borrowed money from the bank and used it to trade in stocks on Wall street. When the depression hit, he lost the money could not pay it back. Bank auditors found it and John Arnold was about a step away from going to jail when his father John C. Curtis took what little money he could get after depression (John Carpenter lost Somerset Mill in depression) and paid off the debt to bank enough to get his son John Arnold out of trouble. John Arnold moved back up to Somerset then from Stern's Kentucky (company owned coal mining company) and had to move in with his brother Earl Curtis for a short while to get his feet on the ground. John Arnold was married to Earl's sister.

50. WILLIAM C.⁹ CURTIS (*FRED PERCIVAL*⁸, *JOHN THURSTON*⁷, *SETH*⁶, *JAMES*⁵, *JOSEPH*⁴, *JOSEPH*³, *JOSEPH*², *THOMAS*¹) was born September 27, 1896, and died January 1991 (Source: Mary Jo Curtis Sarasota FL 05/2002 telephone interview 941-383-1881.). He married WILDA CECIL.

Notes for WILLIAM C. CURTIS:

Per Jack Curtis (John V. Curtis my father--son of Earl Curtis) and Glenn Curtis, this Bill Curtis inherited a little money from Arthur (Art) Curtis his uncle. At the time it was a lot during depression, but not really much. His Uncle Art was a bachelor who was a rail road conductor that had moved and lived in El Paso Texas. Art left almost all his estate to a church (the Seventh Day Adventist).

Per daughter of "Wil" Curtis, Mary Jo, Wil was born in Clinton TN near Oak Ridge. This puts Fred P. Curtis in TN in late 1890's and it should be noted that Fred P's brother John C. Curtis was in Alabama at this time, since that is where Earl Curtis was born in 1894.

51. ROBERT THURSTON⁹ CURTIS (*CHARLES E.*⁸, *JOHN THURSTON*⁷, *SETH*⁶, *JAMES*⁵, *JOSEPH*⁴, *JOSEPH*³, *JOSEPH*², *THOMAS*¹) (Source: Per Glenn Curtis 12/9/2000. Mrs. Robert Curtis Jr. of Somerset in phone interview 2/9/03 source of middle name of Robert Curtis sr. being Thurston.) was born Abt. 1908 in Somerset, Kentucky, and died Abt. 1980.

Notes for ROBERT THURSTON CURTIS:

Per telephone conversation with Mr. Gene Curtis 01/02/04, son of Robert Thurston Curtis, his father worked as a machinist for the Southern railroad. Gene said his father was a talented machinist and at one time joined the Navy and was a seabee in the Navy stationed at Pearl Harbor when attacked by the Japanese. Gene indicated that his father for many years was an alcoholic. Late in life, Gene indicated his father became quite religious. John V. Curtis (Jack) indicated that he thought late in life Robert T. Curtis has actually become a preacher in North Carolina. Gene said his father and mother divorced when he was four years old. Robert T. Curtis was quite a fighter and heavy drinker. He said his father had an old Navy blue steel shief knife from the Navy and would occasionally show it to his son Gene. And on occasion when drinking threaten his wife....Gene's mother. Robert T. Curtis was divorced from his first wife and briefly married a red headed lady (per Gene). He then married a third time to his first wife's best friend who lived across the street from his first wife. Gene said his half brother Michael, is the son of Robert T. Curtis' third wife. Gene said his mother did not want Gene to associate with the Curtis family likely the result of the bad marriage experience to Robert Thurston.

Per Glenn Curtis and Jack Curtis 12/9/2000, Robert did not associate with a good crowd in Somerset KY was thought of as kind of a black sheep. Of course it seems that later I learned that there were opinions of black sheep on both sides of the family, since John Arnold Curtis had a little altercation during the depression with missing money at the Sterns Bank. John (Jack) Vaughan Curtis relates the story of being in the Somerset bank with his father Earl and Uncle Glenn talking with the banker Dick Cooper. Bob Curtis walked in and the banker spoke to Bob saying he had his relatives here. Bob quipped that those relatives kin John Arnold was caught with missing money at the Sterns Bank. It provided a little embarrassment. But all passed.

Jack Curtis said that Bob Curtis worked for the Railroad. That after marrying his third wife, he went back to school, moved to North Carolina with the railroad, and this is where son Michael Curtis was born.

Hospital Notes.

Robt. Curtis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Curtis, was operated on last Saturday night for appendicitis.

Gene Curtis stated that his father, Robert T Curtis had suffered a stroke about 2 years before his death. Consequently he had spent a the last year of his life in nursing care.

Jack Curtis said that he got along with Robert and that he really credits Robert with getting Jack his job at the Somerset drug store with pharmacist Kip Dye. Jack said that Robert would visit his mother who worked as a nurse in the Somerset Hospital, which was in the building connected to the back of the Drug Store on Main Street. Robert, knowing that Jack was interested in working at drug store, learned upon visiting his mother and the connected drug store that Kip Dye the druggist, needed some help and was looking to hire someone, told Jack of the job opening. That is how Jack got his job at the drug store.

Generation No. 10

65. JOHN VAUGHAN¹⁰ CURTIS (*EARL BOTKINS*⁹, *JOHN CARPENTER*⁸, *JOHN THURSTON*⁷, *SETH*⁶, *JAMES*⁵, *JOSEPH*⁴, *JOSEPH*³, *JOSEPH*², *THOMAS*¹) was born August 27, 1918 in Somerset, Ky. He married (1) EDITH COLYER August 27, 1938 in Huntsville, TN (Source: Edith Curtis DAR application.). He married (2) BARBARA LOVETT October 15, 1976.

Notes for JOHN VAUGHAN CURTIS:

Jack attended Somerset High School and upon graduation went to work in a Drug Store in Somerset. The pharmacist he worked for there was named Kip Dye. Jack married Edith Colyer in 1938. A drug company rep from Massengil befriended Jack while he worked at store and put in a good word for him at Massengil. Jack and then wife Edith traveled together to Bristol Tennessee where he put in application and was hired in his first pharmaceutical sales job. Jack remembers meeting old Dr. S.E. Massengil perhaps at this job interview. Upon starting work for Massengil, Jack was assigned a sales territory in Murfreesboro, TN where he and his wife Edith moved from Somerset. They lived in Murfreesboro for about 3-4 years until Jack was drafted into the army during World War II. Served in Army 4 years later stationed in St. Augustine Fla in grave digger division. Upon entering the army, Jack recommended his former pharmacist boss Kip Kye to get his territory in murfreesboro. Kip had lost his Somerset drugstore job and needed help. Mr. Dye took the Murfreesboro territory after Edith Curtis had briefly filled in for Jack during the early months of his military training. Mr. Dye later had a drug store in McMinnville Tn. After Jack got out of the army, Massengil gave him a job and assigned him a territory in Lexington Ky. After working with Massengil for about a year in Lexington, Jack got a job with Abbott Labs. for Lexington Territory after the Abbott rep Eulis Moss, moved to Louisville to take that territory. Jack worked the Lexington Ky Territory from about 1947 until 1956 when Mr. Eulis Moss was promoted to Abbott District Manager in Louisville and requested Jack move to Louisville to take his sales territory. Jack was promoted to District Manager with Abbott in 1965. Jack retired from Abbott in 1982 after 35 years. Worked with Abbott in Lexington Ky and Louisville, Ky. Now resides in Louisville.

As told by Jack Curtis to son Richard 11/18/2000 over dinner at Mrs. Winners chicken:

Started out talking about going to Somerset and took some pictures of old acquaintances he looked up. Said the last time they went down to Somerset saw an old friend Ed Tucker. Said Ed was a football player and he had several brothers that were big football players at Somerset high school. He said he didn't know why Ed had taken to him, but for some reason he had. Ed was originally in his high school class, but he may have flunked a grade and got behind. Ed had gotten to go to college at Bowling Green and had obtained a teaching certificate that enabled him to teach school. In the summers, since teachers only worked 9 months a year, he had to get any work he could in the summer and had driven a delivery truck of some sort. Several years ago at a high school reunion, he had shown up and every knew him, even though he really did not graduate with Dad's class since had fallen behind a year. Dad said gratefully that Ed said that he had just come by to see Jack Curtis. Dad seemed very pleased and honored, but did not know why Ed had taken to him. He said that when he would go to Somerset to visit "Dad and Mother" Ed would drop by the house and visit with them.

Dad told of a time when he was delivering papers, he had Dot with him for some reason and was coming down the hill home, with his paper bags over his shoulder with Dot with him. That a tall skinny boy a year or so older, know to pick on kids younger than he, named Rat Hargis came out and stopped Dad trying to pick on him and would not let him pass. Dad said "...I became more concerned because Dot was only about five years old at the time and she was walking on ahead and would have to cross the busy street down below to get home." He was saying to Ratcome on let me go, I have to go. About that time Ed Tucker who lived within the block came by and said to Ratlet him go, leave him alone. Ed was a big football player type and so could take up for Dad and Rat would back down from him. Rat told Ed that Dad had done something or said something to irritate him, but Ed told Rat to leave him alone. Dad said that since he had Ed there taking up for him, who was bigger than either of them, and he knew Rat would not do anything with Ed there, he jumped up and socked Rat. (making a face of tight lips and motioning of punching). He laughed.

He said some days later, he was on his way home on his bicycle after delivering papers with one paper bag over his shoulder and the other in the Bike front basket. He came around the corner to go down the street (South Central) at the Methodist Church and there was Rat. He said he tried to ride to the other side to avoid him, but Rat ran up and grabbed his paper bag and pulled him off his bicycle. They started fighting, just going at it. Dad said they were kind of out in the street fighting and traffic was stopping and people watching. He said Rat was so much taller that Dad had to jump up and punch to try to punch Rat in the face. He laughed saying it must of looked quite funny him jumping up fighting like a bainty rooster.

Dad said they fought on like this until a black gentleman who worked the only men's clothing dept store stopped. He saw that dad and Rat were tired of fighting and worn out, so he separated them, and said they needed a break. So he separated them and said "you have a three minute rest between rounds." After a few minutes, he sent them back to fighting...He said this went on for about three rounds until both were so tired, they finally quit. Dad said after that, though, Rat never picked on him again.

As told to Richard Curtis by father Jack Curtis 12/9/2000:

When Jack was a boy his parents lived on a 4 acre place outside town near Pisgah community. Described as near the side of town where the Mill was. Said they had a few pigs, chickens, and milk cow. Said that during the depression, they bought groceries from the Sam Colyer Grocery store near the Mill. They could not afford to pay for the groceries all the time so Mr. Colyer was real good about letting them go on account. The bill had gotten up pretty high, so Earl Curtis went down and worked out a deal with Mr. Sam Colyer to trade the old milk cow toward their grocery bill. The milk cow had gotten old and they said it wasn't giving good milk anymore. So Earl gave Jack Curtis the job of leading the old milk cow to the slaughter house and sell it to slaughter so the money could go toward the grocery bill. Jack said that he had to have some help to lead the cow over to the slaughter house as it was across town and the cow would get jittery going through town. But they got it over there and accomplished their chore and paid down on the grocery bill.

Jack Curtis said he had kind of met my mother and would go see her at my Aunt Ruby's grocery store after delivering papers on his paper route during the depression. Ruby Colyer's store was down in a bottom that was across the street from the stockyards in Somerset. Jack's paper route included the street that led down into the bottom and goes by the Somerset cemetery.

Notes for GENE CURTIS:

Lives Somerset Kentucky in 2004. Per telephone interview 01/02/04, Gene joined the Navy in 1957 and moved away from Somerset and stayed in Navy being stationed in New York, Louisville KY and finally Virginia before retiring from the Navy in 1979. He moved from Virginia back to Somerset KY in about 1981.

Gene says he did not have much contact with his Curtis side of the family at his mother's insistence. This was so much the case that he related that it was not until he moved back to Somerset and just in the 1990s learned that his relatives (i.e. his grandfather Charles Curtis) had been involved in building, owning and operating the Somerset flour mill. Gene indicated that he never knew his grandfather Charles Curtis as Charles died before Gene was born. Gene remembers his Grandmother Lizzie. He also remembers other Curtis family members like Wilda and Bill Curtis who lived on a street behind them when he was growing up. Gene remembers his Aunt Wilda bringing him home from church once and it aggravated Gene's mother greatly. Gene said his mother strongly discouraged contact with the Curtis family by Gene.

Gene said he was born in one of the two rooms of the then Somerset Hospital that was attached to the back of the drug store on main street in Somerset. Gene said that in 2004 that the room he was born in is one with the skylight and was still existing as a lawyers office across from main street library and he had seen it a few years ago.

Children of GENE CURTIS are:

98. i. REBECCA JEAN¹¹ CURTIS, b. February 25, 1962.
- ii. MICHAEL WAYNE CURTIS, b. July 19, 1968 (Source: Gene Curtis phone interview 01/02/04.).

Notes for MICHAEL WAYNE CURTIS:

Per Gene Curtis, Michael 's father 01/02/04 telephone interview, Michael has been married once and divorced with no children. He was a graduate of the University of Kentucky with a degree in business and accounting with high honors. Michael worked several years running a Rite Aid drug store in Lexington Ky. In 2004, Michael is engaged to be married and expects to thereby have a step child

(Research):~~Jackson~~

The bleak border moors and craggy hills of the Scottish - E English border set the scene of the origin of this notable surname Jackson. It is one of the oldest surnames with a his Tory that is closely woven into the rich and beautiful tapestry of the border chronicles. Professional researchers examined some of the most ancient manuscripts such as the:

Exchequer Rolls of Scotland

Domesday Book

Inquistio

Ragman Rolls

Baptismals

Parish Records, and Cartularies

Tax Records

The researchers found the first record of the name Jackson in Northumberland where they were seated from early times. Their first records appeared on the Census Rolls taken by the ancient Kings of Britian to determine the rate of taxation of their subjects. The early and middle development of the name found many different spellings in the Archives. The name Jackson, occurred in many references, and from time to time, the surname was spelled, Jaccson, Jacson, Jackston, and these changes in spelling frequently occurred within the same family name. Scribes and church officials spelled the name as it sounded, and these spellings were not even consistent during the lifetime of the same person. The family name Jackson is believed to be descended originally from the Boernicians. This ancient founding race of the north were a mixture of Scottish Picts and Angles, a race dating from about the year 400 AD. Their territories ranged from Edinburgh in the north, southward to the north riding of Yorkshire in England. By 1000 AD This race had formed into discernible clans and families, perhaps some of the first evidence of the family structure in Britian. From this area we get some of the most impressive names in history, surnames with strange nicknames such as the Angry Kerrs, the Sturdy Armstronges, the Gallant Grahams, the Saucy Scotts, the Bells, the Nixons, the Famous Dicksons, the Bold Rutherfordds, the Pudding Somervilles. Amongst this elite circle of clans and families the earliest record of the surname Jackson was found in Northumberland where they were recorded as a family of great antiquity seated with Manor and Estates in the shire. Later they branched south to Durham, Yorkshires, and Lancashire, and north into Scotland where they he ld the Manor of Balbrogy, and at Tubermore and Fort William in the north. A colonel John Jackson was chief advisor to King Charles I of England in his struggle against Cromwell. On the Kings defeat he changed his politics and settled in Ulster, Ireland. The border area of Scotland and England proceeded from Carlisle in the west to Berwick in the east. The clans or families to the north of the border became Scottish after about 1000 AD and to the south they became English. Nevertheless, despite the border, many would still be united clans, powers unto themselves, owing little allegiance to either Scotland or England, having territories and interests on both sides of border. Clan warfare became so intense that in 1246 AD, 6 chiefs from the Scottish side and 6 chiefs from the English side met at Carlisle and produced a set of laws for all the border territory. These were unlike any laws prevailing in England or Scotland, or, for that matter anywhere else in the known world. For example, it was a far greater offence to refuse to help a neighbour recover his property, wife, sheep, cattle, or horse than it was to steal them in the first place. For refusal of assistance a person could be hanged on the instant, without a trial. While clans were on this "hot trot", (from which we get the modern term "hot to trot") they were protected from almost all eventualities.

Amongst the first pioneers who could be considered kinsmen of the family name Jackson, of that clan or family, was John, Margaret, Robert, and Henry Jackson who settled in the Boston area in 1635. This military family continued its tradition in the War of Independence when Colonel Michael Jackson commanded a Massachusetts Line Regiment.

The family name Jackson provided many prominent contemporaries,

Sir Lawrence Jackson, an Australian Judge

Frederick Jackson, an American educator

Glenda Jackson, a British actress

Maynard Jackson, an American lawyer of some note

Stuart Jackson, an American engineer

Andrew "Old Hickory" Jackson, an American general and president

Thomas Jonathon "Stonewall" Jackson, an American Confederate general

General Sir William Jackson to name a few.

The most ancient grant of a coat of arms was researched as ; Blue with a black chevron on which there are three silver five leaved flowers between three gold eagle heads. The crest is a hawk's head. The ancient family motto for this distinguished name was; "by the shield of divine love".

ROSELEA SMITH

NORWICH - Roselea May Wood Smith, 85, of Norwich, and long-time Norwich area resident, passed away Sunday morning, June 23, 2002 in the Chenango Memorial Hospital.

Born and raised in German, Roselea attended the German School. Over the years, she had worked on several area farms, including the Quinn Farm in Norwich, and for the former Stefanelli's Restaurant and Cortland Crescent. She was a woman who loved all children as though they were her own, and never had a bad word to say about anyone. Roselea enjoyed making blankets and dolls, and was an avid race car fan, being especially fond of Jeff Gordon. She loved dancing, even when she had to use her walker.

Roselea was born May 13, 1917, in German, the daughter of Jessie and Louisa (Jackson) Wood. On March 11, 1933, in German, she married Ivan Smith, who passed away in 1972. She is survived by her children: Ivan Smith, Jr., and wife Mary of Uniontown, Pa.; Lawrence Erving Smith and wife Donna of Mt. Upton; Roberta May Miles and husband Frank of Norwich; Richard Louis Smith of Lubock, Texas; Verna Louise Walker and companion Ron Black of Boynton Beach, Fla.; Eleanor B. Perry and husband Ervin of Norwich; Chester Kenneth Smith Sr. and wife Bonnie of Norwich; Paul E. Smith Sr., and wife Loretta of Cortland; Gerald Allen Smith and wife Linda of Plymouth; Hazel Louise Cummings and husband Robert of Norwich; Grace Margaret Chamberlin of Plymouth; Glenda Marie Whitehead and husband Douglas of Oneonta; Darrell Dennis Smith and wife Sandra of Smyrna; Dorothy Frances Perry and husband Steven of Plymouth; and Clyde Albert Smith Sr. and wife Dianne of Clinton, Mass.

Also surviving are her 78 grandchildren, over 100 great grandchildren, and 40 great, great grandchildren; and her sister, Winifred Wentworth of South Otselic; her brother, Jack Wood of Long Island, and many nieces, nephews, and cousins. Besides her husband, Ivan, Roselea was predeceased by two sons: Roland LeRoy Smith in March of 1999, and Lester Lee Smith Sr., in February of 2000; by her sisters: Elizabeth Rossa and Nellie Kraling; and brothers: Seward, William, Robert, Hank, and Walt Wood. She was also predeceased by her daughters-in-law: Nancy Smith and Beverly Smith.

Funeral services for Roselea will be held on Thursday at 9:30 a.m. from the R.J. Fahy Funeral Home. The Rev. Rebekah Sweet, pastor of the Broad Street United Methodist Church, will officiate. Interment will follow in the Upper Lisle Cemetery. Friends may call at the R.J. Fahy Funeral home on Wednesday from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m.

Notes for DONNA ELLEN BARROWS:

Donna contacted me, Richard L. Curtis 1/31/03 saying she had info on Cornileus Curtis and descendants. She is the source of all info below Cornelius Curtis. Cornelius was son of James Curtis. Here is email from her:

I have been researching my mother's family for the past 3 years. I was directed to the family search site this past week because of the release of 1880 census . I had known for several months about Rachel Curtis marriage to Oliver Jenks Jackson but had never done any research on her specifically. Seeing that this was a line that I had not explore I found myself going into your database.

To my surprise here were pictures of an area that I have Known all my life but never associated with this particular cemetery having relatives in it. If the photographer had asked at the house across from the Cemetery My Aunt Ann Jackson Wood would have told him of the years that her sons had cleaned the cemetery. Even They had no idea that family is buried there until last night. Also the two farms on either side belong to Lewis Jackson and his sons. My grandfather Phillip Jackson bought the farm on the Corbin Road in the 1930's and Uncle Louie bought the Hoban Place in the 1960's.

I have slowly compiled the rest of the Line from Cornelius thru Rachel down to today. If you would like what information on this line I will be willing to share. Most of the information I have gotten by lots of legwork in the family and from a cousin who also worked on this line.
